Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

When will I need to make a reservation?
Reservations will be required for The Diner and South Campus Dining Hall starting at 10:00 am. The last reservation will be taken at 8:45 pm. Reservations will be available in 30 minute increments.

How long will I have to eat in the dining halls?
You will have 30 minutes to eat.

What happens if I am early/late for my reservation?
If a student is early, they will be unable to enter until the start of their reservation time. If a student is late, they will be able to enter up to the start of the next reservation time.

Will I need a reservation for the first two weeks of the semester?
No, reservations are not required while all dining is carryout only. When the campus permits dine-in experiences, reservations will be required for dine-in only.

Where can I find menu and nutrition information?
All menu and nutrition information can be found at nutrition.umd.edu.
