Customer Service Award

About Christopher M. Carey:

Chris was a student employee of Dining Services and worked at the golf course restaurant, Mulligan's. Each day he came to work, Chris captured the essence of what we value in our department. The criteria below are reflections of his superior customer service attributes. This award, named in Chris' memory, is a way of encouraging all employed in the University of Maryland Dining Services to strive for the same goals, to do so with pride.... and ALWAYS with Chris' great smile.

About the Award:

The Chris Carey Customer Service Award recognizes a student employee who has demonstrated excellent or exceptional customer service to others in the campus community.

Criteria:

This award will be presented to a student who by his or her demeanor, words and actions provides superior customer service. Customers may include students, parents, faculty, staff or guests of the campus. Actions that model this exemplary service might include:

- Cordially greeting customers, welcoming them to the campus and the unit
- Promptly acknowledging customers, letting them feel appreciated
- Being respectful and courteous to the customer and those around you
- Listening to the customer and being able to anticipate their needs
- Successfully completing the customer service experience-from greeting to departure
- Acknowledging mistakes, taking corrective action and seeking assistance when needed
- Looking for opportunities to turn a complaint into valuable feedback and a positive outcome

Eligibility:

All University of Maryland Dining Services student employees are eligible for this award. An employee is eligible for the award once every three years.

Who May Nominate:

Any University of Maryland employee may make a nomination for this award.
