How can I compost on campus?

- » If your event is in The Stamp, ask your event coordinator to set up a compost bin for your event.
- » If your event is elsewhere on campus, contact UMD Facilities Management at recycle@umd.edu two business days before the your next event to arrange for pick up.

What can I do with leftover food?

- » If you have too many leftovers, tell us about your event so we can help plan optimum quantities for next time.
- » Before your event, email umfood@umd.edu for ways to get in touch with students who will help you donate unused food to hungry graduate students or to area non-profits.

How can I serve water without providing plastic bottles?

- » Ask event attendees to bring their own reusable water bottle.
- » In advance of the event, locate the campus bottle refill station closest to your venue and post directions for your guests.

Is there anything else to consider?

- » Think about increasing meat-free options. Vegetarian food is delicious, more environmentally friendly—and not just for vegetarians!
